

I want it to be noted that I listen everyday to K-Love. If you were to allow the change to allow a LPFM to replace K-Love you would be take away a very positive part of my day, each and every day I listen to K-Love. The music and message they boardcast helps me deal with life in a way the God would want me to. I believe that K-Love provides a very positive plus for our community